

Women's & Men's Volleyball World Final Qualification and The Regional Qualification of Asian Teams for The London Olympics 2012

Final Report

FIVB President's Message

Once again, the FIVB is grateful for the support of the Japan Volleyball Association and the Japanese public for hosting two crucial Olympic qualification tournaments in May and June.

Japan has a fine tradition in international volleyball, not only on the playing court but also in organizing key events, and the two Olympic Qualification Tournaments were no different.

I thank the organisers and staff who once again demonstrated their professionalism and commitment in managing such important events less than two months before the start of the Olympic Games.

For the fifth time in as many Olympic cycles, Olympic qualification tournaments were held in Japan illustrating how important the country is in the world of international volleyball. And over that time, it is pleasing to see that the quality of play and fierce competition keeps getting better and better.

I am encouraged that the results in the women's competition produced a strong mix of new and old volleyball nations. Congratulations are due to the teams that qualified for the Olympics, including Serbia, who earned just their second Olympic berth, and Korea, who won a return ticket after uncharacteristically missing the Beijing Games in 2008.

The Japanese team can once again hold their heads high, having secured Olympic qualification for the 11th time. Only the tournament's winners, Russia, have been more successful – they entered their 12th Olympic Games (as USSR from 1964 to 1988, as C.I.S. in 1992 and as Russia since 1996).

On the men's side, my congratulations go to Serbia and Australia for taking the coveted Olympic spots. Both nations have exciting volleyball futures ahead of them with Australia having qualified for their third Olympic Games and Serbia for their sixth (one as Serbia and Montenegro and three as Yugoslavia). I am pleased to have seen a depth of competitive field which continues to get stronger.

Mr. Jizhong Wei
FIVB President
